

Victor French
William Gaughan
Peter Gilbert
Angelo Giovino
Tony Groletto
Maurice Hall
Joseph Riester
Edward Hatfield
Edward Heath
Robert Hodge
Herbert Hodgson
Robert Howell
Russell Johnston
Fred Kramer
Paul Kutscha
Frank Lee
Sidney Lidgate
William Manning
Wright McAneny
John Meggy

Howard Melick
Southard Outwater
Harry Paff
Tony Parette
Hullett Perrine
Frank Hand
Robert Sargent
Donald Saunders
Max Saunders
Henry Schwalback
Machal Sinker
John Southard
Elmer Terry
Herbert Terry
Vincent Terry
Charles Trano
Harry Wade
Albert Walpole
Edmund Walter
Harry Weiland

(This list is as complete as our present records show)

OUR SAFETY PATROL

In School One we have the Safety Patrol to help protect the safety of our students. The Safety Patrol was organized four years ago and has been very active ever since. Some of the Patrol members are stationed on the street corners and help the police to watch the dangerous crossings. Others are stationed on the stairways in school and at the doors. You can recognize a member of the Safety Patrol by his white belt.

The members of the Safety Patrol must be either from fifth or sixth grades. The member must have satisfactory grades in all subjects every week. He must have permission from his mother and his teacher before he can go into training as a Patrol. He must want to be a Patrol member himself.

The pledge of the Patrols tells what his duties are and must be memorized by each Patrol. This pledge is as follows:

"As a member of the Scotch Plains School One Safety Patrol, I will do my best to obey all rules of safety and to so conduct myself, both in and out of school, that my actions will set a good example for all other pupils to follow. I will remember that my duty as a patrol member is not to spoil the fun of others, but to help make that fun safe. I will remember that my chief task is, not to order other pupils to do certain things, not to discover and report wrongdoers, but rather, to serve as a constant reminder of the rules of safety. I will not use force in main-