

taining discipline."

We all realize that the Safety Patrol of School One is very important in keeping all of our pupils safe in our school and on the street.

THE SUNRISE HERALD

The "Sunrise Herald" is our school magazine. It tells our parents what we are doing in school and tells us what the other classes are doing. The "Sunrise Herald" was begun in 1933 under the direction of Miss Mildred Savage. Today, the "Sunrise Herald" is sponsored by Miss Marion Maranville. All of the classes contribute news and stories for the paper. Miss Maranville's sixth grade edits all of the articles.

All of the supplies needed for the paper are paid for by the sale of the paper and advertisements. The paper sells for five cents a copy and a subscription for six issues is twenty-five cents. The departments of the paper are editorials, news, sports, literary, features, and fun. The paper is usually about twenty pages in length and there are six issues a year.

The members of 6M on this year's staff are: Editor-in-Chief - Jean Ferrara; Associate Editor - Richard Fowler; Business Manager - Barbara Webb; Sales Manager - Audrey Ludwig; Art Editors - Vaunceil Tiarks and Thomas Kitt; Hobbies Director - Richard Howell; Book Reviewers - Gloria De Francesco and Victor De Francesco; Reporters - Lawrence Zampella, Robert Marko, Janet Korb; Proof Readers - Shirley Langfield and Anna Litchey.

The "Sunrise Herald" is a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press. Each year members of the staff are sent to the Press Conference at Columbia University, New York City. This year the "Sunrise Herald" won a medal and third place at this meeting. We believe our school paper is one of the finest of its kind and we enjoy it a great deal.

THE PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Parent-Teachers Association is one of the most important organizations in our school. At the P.T.A. meetings our parents and teachers meet and discuss our problems and the problems of School One.

The P.T.A. of School One was first organized in 1916. Mr. Dana Townsend was principal of School One at that time. Mrs. M. Hyer was elected as the first president. There were about twenty members at that time including Mrs. Hyer, Mrs. A. D. Hollingsworth,