

corner Park and E. Second Street - torn down in August 1936

Joe Blottner, Prop., March 22, 1936

business moved across the street on May 7, 1936 - dismantled August 15, 1936 former Fanwood Lumber and Supply Coal Office - in days before phones built by E. W. D. Johnston