

THE BATTLE OF THE SHORT HILLS COMMEMORATIVE WEEKEND ACTIVITIES

June 25 and 26, 1977

Saturday, June 25th:

8:30 A.M. - 10 MILE BATTLE RUN, sponsored by the Fanwood-Scotch Plains YMCA

(starting at Union County Technical Institute, 1776 Raritan Road, Scotch Plains, covering area of heaviest fighting — Rahway Rd. to Inman Ave. Edison to the Plainfield line on Old Raritan Rd., back to Rahway and Cooper Rd. to the Westfield line by West Broad St. and Lamberts Mill Rd. to Raritan Rd. and back to the Institute).

approximately

10:30 A.M. - AWARDS to the winners — Center quad of the Institute (Special award to fastest overall time, and awards to first three places, male and female, in groups: 20 to 25, 26-35, 36-45, 46-55, and 56-over.)

Announcing
AUNT BETTY FRAZEE BREAD

Made available through the Scotch Plains Women's Club
on sale throughout the weekend
on the Institute grounds

Join us for the
"BATTLE BALL of 1977"

Saturday, June 25th, 8:30 P.M.

On The Commons at Union County Technical Institute for an Evening Collation and Dancing
Music by the Upper Level

plus raffle of the Bicentennial Quilt — sponsored by the Historical Society of Scotch Plains and Fanwood and made with the help of many town organizations.

Advanced sale of tickets - $7.50

18th C. Costume encouraged

Proceeds from fund raisers go to the Scotch Plains ARBC for the monument to the battle.