

In commemoration of the Centennial Celebration of Fanwood, New Jersey, in 1995, the following is simply a compilation of recollections by the author, of the life and times of Fanwood as she was growing up there, and is in no way intended to be documentary in nature.