

The first grocers and butcher shop in Fanwood, Baker and Mead, was constructed in 1893 on South Avenue next to Central Crossing. Augustus Sheelen was first a clerk and later co-owner of the shop along with his brother. Sheelen Brothers store became a popular meeting place and even served as a court house in the early 1900's.