

Do You Remember When?

Chapter 9

No.....

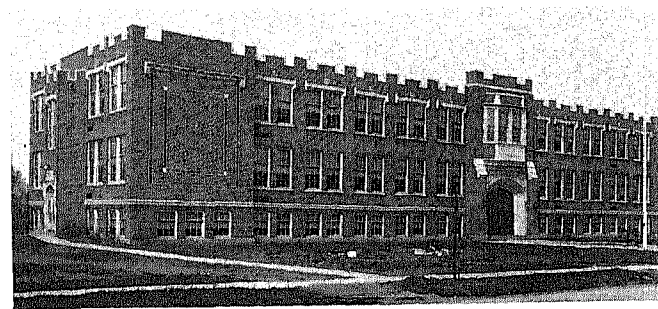

Bentwood Golf Links
24 Hole Miniature Course.
FANWOOD, N. J.

10 GAME TICKET 2.50

Name.....

Address.....

Good for One Game

Clockwise from upper left:

Baseball was a popular sport at the turn of the century. Fanwood fielded a talented squad pictured here in their group photograph.

The local Cub Scout packs held "Cub Mobile" races on Chetwood Terrace and North Avenue during the 1950's and 1960's. They were sponsored by the Fanwood Men's Club, now the Fanwood Lions Club. This picture is of John Rau preparing to race in May 1961.

Scotch Plains-Fanwood builds first high school on Park Avenue in 1926.

Fanwood sported its own miniature golf course in the 1930's. It was located on South Avenue at the current site of the A&P Supermarket.