

Walter S. Force, the first borough tax collector, resided in a stately home on North Avenue facing the train station.

A member of the first Board of Health, Burton Hall, lived in a classic Queen Ann style home on North Avenue constructed in 1885.

The residence of J.P. Stevens, a mill owner, was constructed on Forest Road in 1896.

In 1895 Dr. Frank Westcott was appointed Borough physician for a yearly sum of $1.00. Dr. Westcott resided in a home conveniently located at the corner of North and Martine, constructed in 1890.