

The brother of George Kyte lived in this home. Picket fences accented the well treed grounds of this estate.

The home of Dr. Thomas W. Bickerton, was built on the corner of Midway Avenue and Russell Road. It was typical of the Dutch style of Colonial Revival architecture.

Frank E. Weldon, one of the founders of Fanwood Crushed Stone, raised his family in a Neoclassical style home on Martine Avenue.