

America

1921 - 1936

After my father's marriage to my mother in 1921, he returned to America. According to his passport, he lived on Mulberry Street in New York City. Before immigration closed down in 1924, he returned to Italy to bring my mother to America.

Information gathered from various family members indicate that they lived in Westfield, New Jersey, boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Louis DiFrancesco and later lived on Cacciola Place before moving to Scotch Plains.

The following papers trace their voyage to America.
