

1935

This silk yo-yo baby quilt was given to my mother when I was born. The quilt was made by a friend of the family and is beautifully handstitched. It is preserved in a lovely shadowbox frame and is considered a museum piece.