

Remembering . . .

Felix and Clementina

What follows is a collection of memories from the 1930s and 1940s written by Fran, Jeanie, and me. I left the writings exactly as they were written. They are a wonderful expression of our individual thoughts and feelings.