

As I think back, we don't have too many pictures of the neighbors--even of all the kids that we used to play with day in and day out. Doesn't make a difference though, it's the memories that count.

Photo credits

Mom and Jeanie (with doll) next to the fig tree in the backyard.

Fran, Jeanie (reading book) and Mom with the lovely peony bush in the background. My mother loved flowers, especially the peonies, hollyhocks, and dahlias.

Jeanie and Mom relaxing in the backyard.

Sue, Jeanie, and Ben Maranzano in the front yard of the house on Mountain Avenue.