

Frank Kelly

We met in college and were married in the sixties. I love him for his wonderful relationship with his children and his devotion to me. He was a newspaper copy editor for many years until he retired. He continues to write and edit stories. This book was edited, and in some areas rewritten, by him. I am grateful for his expertise and talent. I could not have done this alone.

Donald Czerwinski

Don is the local kid who married my sister Jeanie (Gina). He won a scholarship to Notre Dame University, and after graduation, he entered the computer field.

He has not changed much over the years. He is still his gracious self. His outgoing nature can put anyone at ease.

He is a super brother-in-law.
