

Leaving the neighborhood

In 1954 the house on Mountain Avenue was sold, and we moved to another section of Scotch Plains. The house was beautiful, and my parents lived to enjoy it for many years.

The memories from the old house on Mountain Avenue lingered on. We left behind a culture; our friends and neighbors became distant.

