

Departing for America

This picture was taken as my mother and father left on the Christoforo Colombo from Naples on the return trip to America. It is a poignant photograph. One can see the women weeping, their heads bowed low. Standing in the rear are my uncles Luigi and Ireneo.