

November 18, 1951 (continued)

Family group pictures became the vogue at this time. What a wonderful record of a beautiful day! The gathering at the home before the reception with family and friends was traditional. Mom's wonderful pastries were set out and everyone had a good time. Pictured here are many friends and relatives--Flavia (Quinzio) Novello, Aunt Alphonsina, relatives from Paterson, Mrs. Concetta DiFrancesco, our neighbors Jo and Mary DiNizo, Adeline DiNizo, Carmella DiNizo, Carmella Parillo. Note the decor--the living room lamp, the beautiful draparies, the old china closet, and on top the the china closet--the stuffed pheasant!
