

1961

Florence Iaione
Francis Kelly
August 31, 1961

A different kind of wedding

I was and still am a non-conformist. I just wanted a simple ceremony at church with family members. I compromised with my parents; we agreed on a small wedding and a reception at home.

It all turned out very nicely. Jeanie and Pat Kelly were our attendants. If I had to do it over again, I would definitely go this route, sans the formality--everyone in casual clothes, and perhaps a little Mozart.