

JOHNSON'S PENNSYLVANIA
AND NEW JERSEY

PUBLISHED BY
A. JOHNSON, NEW YORK.
Scale of Miles

An 1864 map of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, published by A.J. Johnson, New York. By an act approved by the New Jersey Legislature on March 19, 1857, a separate county—Union County—was formed and became effective on April 13, 1857. This map includes Union County—the youngest of the twenty-one counties of New Jersey. Scotch Plains does not appear on this map.