

The original pre-Revolutionary War farmhouse that was modernized and became the J.H. Martine home.

The J.H. Martine home during the winter, c. 1920. The piazza and dormers were added around 1900. The building was torn down in the 1930s.