

The Scotch Plains Bucket and Engine Company, first organized in 1884. The horse is pulling a Holloway chemical engine. The building once housed Meyer Brothers Grocery. From left to right are Henry Meyer (holding the lantern), Jos. Albert, Wm. Meyer, and Chief Chas. Meyer Sr. The two men at the far right remain unidentified.

Proud and on parade! The Cawley Mountain Water Company on parade, c. 1900.