

School One's Class of 1911. The students identified on the back of this photograph include Fred Coombs, Lloyd Seabolt, Evelyn Buckley, Margert Jalen, Marion Clark, Sadie Manning, Southard Oulivater, Nettie Ford, Grace Milick, Ruth Dunan, George Clark, Clifford French, Mary Murry, Rose Florence, and Sidney Lidgate.

The first grade class of School One in 1918. The teacher is Miss Bennette. The students, as identified on the back of the photograph, are, from left to right: (front row) Yarrisio, Sabatino, R. Santosalvo, Mooney, Meyer, Meyer, Carrona, Myer, and Bopp; (second row) R. Prethee, Howith, E. Tramontano, unknown, and R. Williams; (third row) Santosalvo, Cristerfer, Peck, and Vrinive; (back row) Vrinive, unknown, DiDenoto, Tramontano, Conway, Wallpoll, and Orr. (It should be noted that the information on the back of the photograph was incomplete. Perhaps the author had forgotten many of the children's names.)