

Seven Churches

The Willow Grove Chapel on Raritan Road in Scotch Plains. In 1887, the cornerstone for this vine-covered stone building was laid. The building was completed in time for the Christmas service of 1888. The chapel still stands today, although many additions and renovations have been completed to accommodate the ever-growing congregation.

