

The celebration of Scotch Plains Week after World War I. Edward Ward and his family lived in this home, which is decorated for the celebration.

A photograph of the wives, mothers, and sisters of World War II servicemen from Scotch Plains. Although the list is incomplete, the following people are identified on the back of the photograph: (front row) Mrs. Carmen Meyer (Fred), Mrs. John Long, unknown, Mrs. Peterson, unknown, Mrs. Malek, unknown, Mrs. Fette, unknown, unknown, Mrs. Vernon, Mrs. M. DiFrancesco (Rose Santa Salvo), Mrs. L. DiFrancesco (Faith Mancini), and unknown; (second row) unknown, Mrs. Florence Sharkey (Ed), Mrs. M. Meyer, unknown, Mrs. C. Sharkey, Mrs. Bardoff, Mrs. A. Caruso, Mrs. J. Del Nero, Mrs. Triplet, Mrs. Wallace, unknown, Mrs. Debbie, and unknown; (third row) Mrs. Chechio, Mrs. D'Addamio, Mrs. Fantini, Mrs. J. Santo Salvo Sr., unknown, Mrs. Clare Fritz, Mrs. Huldabraun, Mrs. J. Prettie, Mrs. Peter Beck, Mrs. Levine, Mrs. Emery, and unknown; (back row) unknown, unknown, Mrs. C. Beck, Betty Mann, Brehm (Walter), unknown, unknown, Mrs. Prettie, Mrs. Art Runyon, and Mrs. Rau.