

THE POLICE CHIEF. William Logan served the borough for 15 years, starting as a night marshal for $50 a month. Later, he provided borough protection during the day for an additional $24 a month, plus a new uniform and a bicycle. Sadly, Chief Logan died when, while chasing hoboes on the railroad track, he was struck by a pusher engine running backward on the eastbound freight track.

PROTECTION. In 1941, police patrol cars cruise the north-side train-station parking lot adjacent to the Martine Avenue railroad crossing.
