

A NEW HOME. The first part of the current Fanwood Memorial Library was opened in 1951. It was named in memory of local men who lost their lives in the service of their country. Constructed at a cost of $45,000, it was the first building constructed by the borough since its incorporation in 1895. This is an architect's rendering of that original building.
