

THE FIRST HIGH SCHOOL. Fanwood teenagers attended high school in Scotch Plains. This building was constructed in 1926 on Park Avenue and served as the high school until 1958. It became a junior high and is now a middle school for grades five through eight. Many alterations have been made to Park School over the years.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL. Girls' sports were important even in 1927. Here, members of the high school basketball team pose at Park School.
