

THE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING. The first section of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School was completed in 1958. A major addition was constructed in 1969, followed by another renovation and addition in 2003. Currently, about 1,350 pupils attend grades nine through twelve. Noted Fanwood graduates include actress Sada Thompson; Billy Austin, an all-American from Rutgers; and Carol Bellamy, a part of the United Nations leadership.

THE DRUM MAJORETTE. This spirited young lady, Elaine Klein, led the marching band for the high school in 1946.
