

ITS STATELY SUCCESSOR. Mirroring the booming growth of the community during the post-war era, the Fanwood Presbyterian Church's congregation hailed from many states and many different religious affiliations. Outgrowing its original home, the sanctuary building of today was dedicated on September 21, 1958, with its front doors facing Martine Avenue.