

GEORGE KYTE. This powerful public servant was associated with the Central Land Improvement Company, which began a development of six houses along the Central Railroad tracks. He was deeply involved in All Saints Episcopal Church, a family affiliation for more than four generations. At the time of his death in 1900, he was mayor of Fanwood.