

WINTER FUN. In this 1950 photograph, mothers lend a helping hand to their youngsters as they learn how to move and stay upright on the inviting ice at Happel's Pond, now the site of the high school on Westfield Road.

TRASH AND TREASURE. The north side of the old Fanwood railroad station was the most popular place in town to hold a flea market—the cultural phenomenon that raged during the 1970s, 1980s, and into the 1990s.