

PARADE LOVERS. An overflow crowd of Fanwood residents observes the horse-drawn exhibit of the Elks Club as the Memorial Day parade of 1961 makes its way northward along tree-lined Martine Avenue.

PROUD PARTICIPANTS. Successive generations of Fanwood residents have been faithful to the tradition of the Memorial Day parade. This section of the 1961 parade shows off antiques cars to memorialize the American love affair with the automobile in the 20th century.
