

PATRIOTS' FACES. Yankee Doodle, William Diamond (a drummer boy during the Revolution), and Paul Revere are representative renditions of the artistry and imagination of Fanwood citizens of all ages who transformed the fire hydrants into a parade of patriots.

