

FOR ANOTHER GENERATION. The centennial time capsule is lowered into position in front of borough hall by public works assistant John Piccolla (left) and director Ray Manfra. A bronze and marble marker instructs a future generation to open it in the year 2095. The precise map coordinates of the location are noted in the preserved official minutes of the Fanwood Borough Council.