

AN EARLY ROADWAY. This southward view on Terrill Road, a passageway that dates back to the Revolutionary War period, shows the narrow bridge over the railroad. North Avenue crosses over from left to the right.

ANOTHER PERSPECTIVE. This view of Terrill Road, pointing north, encompasses a view of Mount St. Mary's Academy perched on the side of the Watchung Mountains.