

Eight

CLUBS FORMED,
VOLUNTEERS SERVED

Leisure time brought people together in groups of common interest, while the needs of others were met by volunteers. Both led to the development of clubs of every variety—women's and men's groups, community theater, service clubs, scouting—that have served Fanwood's spirited and giving citizens. Clubs in action are bits of the borough's history.