

A FIELD TRIP. The Fanwood Women's Club visits the Ciba plant during the days of proper hats and gloves and no slacks.
