

DEAN OIL. In the same block as the lumberyards, but facing onto La Grande Avenue, the Dean Oil Company provided home heating oil to houses in the vicinity, as well as auto parts and supplies.

FANWOOD HARDWARE. There was a spot for everything, and only Sol, the owner, knew exactly where to look in this Martine Avenue landmark, where Fanwood families could get supplies for do-it-yourself home and garden projects. A bagel shop fills this location today.
