

and a teen center operated through the Board of Education facilities. Fall activities include basketball, golf, tennis, arts and crafts, and the special Halloween Parade and costume judging. In winter, the Commission holds sketching classes, cheerleading and baton twirling instruction, wrestling, and ice skating, as well as badminton which continues through several months. The arrival of Santa is part of the holiday celebration. Besides baseball, tennis and golf in the spring, there are the annual Easter Egg Hunt, track and field meets, girls' softball leagues, spelling bee, wildlife poster contest, and fishing derby.

"Soccer Practice, Recreation Department"

Some adult activities include golf, tennis, tennis instruction, basketball, softball, and touch football. Senior Citizens (58 and over) meet during the year, Tuesdays, at Scotch Hills Clubhouse and, Thursdays, in Green Forest Park. They conduct their own programs, including dancing instruction, trips, bazaars, etc. A Senior Citizens mini-bus provides transportation for shopping and other trips.