

TREES

Here in their natural surroundings are pictured five different types of trees commonly used for Christmas. Notice how widely they differ both in needle formation and silhouette. The fragrance too ranges from the pungent woody odor of the pine to the exotic scent of the cedar; the color from deep brownish green to rich blue green.

Spruce

