WEDDING.

All former students of Scotch Plains High School will be interested in learning that Miss Hanna Stiglitz was recently married to Dr.G. Williams, Professor of Psychology at Rutgers University. Miss Stiglitz was wed in the Kilpatrick Chapel at Rutgers on Saturday, April 29th.

Mr. Philip C. Burd was appointed assistant principal of the high school, upon the resignation of Mrs Williams. He will take up his new position in September, at the beginning of the school year.

SENIOR CARNIVAL.

The class of 1944 organized and sponsored a carnival for the raising of funds for the year book. The school including the auditorium, the basement corridors and hoys' gym wore tastefully decorated, and the whole atmosphere was that of a carnival or a circus. Side shows ranged from Punch and Judy through fortune tell-ing to hula-hula dancers. The affair was well attended and grossed well over $300.

BASEBALL.

This year for the first time in some years the high school is represented on the interscholastic field with a baseball team. A full schedule is planned and an effort will be made to pick a "Little-Five " Conference Champion. Vinc Remcho has taken on the duties of coach assisted by Herb Jensen. A fair crew of boys is reporting regularly and they make up with enthusiasm for their lack of experience. Five games have been played to date with No.Plainfield, Dunellen and Sayreville, with Scotch Mains on the short end in all. The boys have gained valuable experience and it is hoped before the end of the season that they will chalk up a vic-tory or two. Todd, Shreve and Fishman are doing the hurling, While Persson is doing the back-stop work.

TRACK,

Again this year the school is represented by a peppy crew in the track and field events under the direction of Cosch Callaghan. The boys took the first dual meet with Pingrey by the score of 55-35. Dan Winston was the high scorer with 13 points, placing first in the "hundred" and broad jump and second in the 220.

Tommy Williams pulled a sur--prise, taking the 880 in 2' 12".
