

Dr. and Mrs. Manning Voorhis and daughter will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Voorhis. Manning is going to work on the farm until fall when he will take over his new job as Associate Professor of American History at Randolph Macon College.

Another educator who will spend his summer working on a farm is Dick Taylor of Lake Avenue. Dick plans to go to a Pennsylvania farm just as soon as the Westfield schools close.

Frank Galbraith has moved from the 'Historic Inn' to the 'West Side House'. Herman J. Frowery is now operating the Historic Inn.

The liquor license of August Danker, operating 'Radley Lodge', has been suspended for 50 days upon conviction of selling to minors.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Novella of Mountain Avenue have announced the engagement of their daughter, Florinda to S/Sgt. Edwin Wrigley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wrigley Sr. of Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Siedentop have purchased the Curtis home on Newark Avenue. They have a son and son-in-law in overseas service.

Mr. and Mrs. Zapanarak have sold their home in Maple Hill and expect to move July first.

Burt Smith's grocery store on Madison Avenue is now under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brazee.

The Invasion is ON! THE FIFTH WAR LOAN is ON! HERE'S YOUR CHANCE to back the attack back the drive and back your future.
Buy a Bond today!

GOLF

The Golf Team, consisting of Zmuda, McCrea, Campbell, Brian, Palmer and Marco, has been under the guidance of Coach Adkins. To date, they have engaged in 11 matches, losing 7, tying 1 and winning 3. Coach Adkins says the boys are better than the scores show.

TRACK

The Track Team has closed a very successful season. They won dual meets with Pingry, Metuchen and Rahway. They lost a close contest to North Plainfield and took second to Highland Park in the Little Five Conference. In the State Interscholastic Meet at Montclair, they scored 16 points. Sylvester took a first place in the shot-put with a heave 42' 11". Jack Todd threw the javelin 157' 4" for a first place, while Tommy Williams took second in the 880 making his best time in 2 min. 8 sec. Adams and Winston took a fifth in the pole vault and 100 respectively.

BASEBALL

The baseball season is over. The team, made up mostly of sophomores, obtained a full year's experience in competition and should be ready for a real season next year.

A few weeks back, the faculty and a team of juniors and seniors met in a softball game. The results, as one might expect, were 17 runs to 5. The faculty made five runs only with the generous help of the umpire.

(Editor's note) (The opinions expressed in the foregoing paragraph by the student reporter do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the adult staff of The Scotch Plainsman.)

MUSICAL ACTIVITIES

The pupils in the Music Department are busy rehearsing for commencement programs.

Suzanne Jones on the baritone, Natalie Jones on the trombone and Pauline St. George on the cornet, received first place ratings in the New Jersey All-state Instrumental Solo Contest. Rudy Dormaier, Jean Peterson, Laura Barlow and Betty Newman, have been successful in being placed in the All-State Chorus after a series of try-outs that extended over the entire state.

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement plans for the current year are now completed and all participants are rehearsing regularly. The Senior High School Commencement will be held Thursday evening, June 22. This year's program will consist largely of music played by talented members of the class. The Baccalaureate sermon will be presented by Rev. Peterson Sunday evening, June 18th.

Right now, however, most seniors and all high school students, who are worrying about examinations, which are to take place June 14, 15 and 16.

PRE-INDUCTION GUIDANCE

Mr. Adkins, of the high school faculty, has been appointed director of pre-induction guidance. He is meeting with all the boys prior to induction into the armed forces and attempting to sound out their interest. He would be pleased to receive any suggestions from you fellows who are going through the mill. You might questionably have, through your own experience, found many worthwhile procedures for making a success of your life in the armed forces. You have any suggestions, please send them to Mr. H. L. Adkins Jr., High School, Scotch Plains, N. J.

WEDDING BELLS

Wedding bells continue to ring in the high school faculty. Ray Perri and Tressa Driggers pulled a surprise and were quietly married by Rev. Peterson Saturday morning, June third.

Miss Bianca Federico has announced her wedding plans for Sunday, June 8 at which time she will wed Staff Sergeant Dell'Isola.

THE SCOTCH PLAINSMAN

Scotch Plains N. J.

The Servicemen's Paper of Scotch Plains, N. J.

NEWS FROM HOME

FOR THE

MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE FROM SCOTCH PLAINS TOWNSHIP