

SERVICE BRIEFS

Lt. Robert H. Campbell, attached to the 344th Bomb Sq., 98th Bomb Grp., APO 520, P.M., N.Y. entered the service of Uncle Sam on January 30th, 1943, and trained at the University of Vermont; Nashville, Tenn; Maxwell Field, Ala. Arcadia, Fla., Gunter Field, Ala; Turner Field

Ga. and Westover Field, Mass. He received his wings and commission at Turner Field in May, 1944. He was recently promoted to 1st lieutenant and advanced from co-pilot to pilot. On Feb. 5, 1944, he and the former Miss Marion Brucher, of White Lake, N.Y. were married in the post chapel at Gunter Field. His wife and infant son, William Robert, live at 529 Park Avenue.

*****

S/Sgt. John J. DiQuollo, of 368 Cook Ave., is a key man behind the scenes of the supply war in Europe. Serving with a Station Complement Squadron at an Air Service Command depot in England, he is working long hours wrestling with the thousands of complex problems that arise in keeping equipment moving to the men of the combat air forces. He has been a soldier since December, 1942 and has been overseas 16 months.

*****

Second Lieutenant William Kitz has been awarded the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" while participating in bombing attacks on military and industrial targets in Germany. He is a B-17 Flying Fortress pilot in the 8th Air Force.

*****

Cpl. J. Millwater, 514 Repl. Co. 116th Repl. Bn., APO 904-A, c/o PM, New York, sent us an Easter Greeting from Italy. Dame Rumor hath it that Jack is back in the States on rotation leave.

*****

Mrs. E.J. Delnero writes that she knows her husband, S/Sgt. Edward J. Delnero, enjoys The Scotch Plainsman because there would always be an argument as to who would read it first.

*****

Thos. J. Hutchinson, R.M. 3/C, joined the Navy Nov. 29, 1943. He took boot at Newport, R. I. and from Feb. 10 to Sept. 15, 1944 was at Bainbridge, Md., taking courses in electricity and radio operating, following this with advanced courses in radio operating and maintenance.

With a rating of Radio Man 3/C, he transferred to Elizabeth City, N. C. and was assigned to the Lighter-than-Air (LTA) base at Weeksville. He is now at Norfolk, Va., awaiting orders for sea duty which he requested.

*****

HONOR ROLL

TOWNSHIP OF SCOTCH PLAINS

HONOR ROLL ADDITIONS

- Adair, Donald M.
 Adam, Edwin H.
 Ahrens, Clarence R.
 Bantle, John
 Barattucci, Albert
 * Biddulph, Walter
 Bittle, Robert J.
 Bolleo, Bernard
 Bremer, Percy R.
 Brigham, John J.
 Burt, Edward Jr.
 Capone, Dominick
 Capone, Orlando, L.
 Checchio, Fiore
 Collins, Jewel B.
 Compton Vernon
 Connolly, Edward L.
 Connolly, James R.
 Correnty, Frank J.
 Curtis, Frank
 Daugherty, Ray
 Davis, Bernhard F.
 DiProspero, Anthony
 Doty, James E.
 Dougherty, Edward G.
 Dow, Walter M.
 Dowling, Dean B.
 Dunn, William A.
 Eannucci, Anthony J.
 Eld, Herbert W.
 ** Evangelista, John
 France, William P.
 Frusco, Pasquale A.
 Garrison, Robert L.
 Geitheim, Arthur
 Gladwin, Raymond C.
 Gordon, Robert T.
 Grausso, Michael C. Sr.
 Grygent, Edward H.
 Hacquer, Robert D.
 Hammond, Hugh W.
 Hannon, John A.
 Hildick, Alfred E.
 Hildick, Clifford
 Howarth, Walter J.
 Hyslip, Edward A.
 Iaione, Anthony P.
 Jacoby, Walter Jr.
 Jareski, Frank J.
 ** Johnson, Jessie
 Jones, Rice
 Jost, Albert C.
 Keller, Virginia B.
 Keyes, John Oliver
 Kirby, Leonard F.
 Kitzs, Henry A.
 Koscielny, Joseph
 Kralik, Genevieve M.
 Lee, Sara
 Lewis, Edward R.
 Lipford, James H.
 Lock, Everard H.
 Long, Edwin K.
 Long, Robert H.
 McCausland Jr.
 McNutt, James Walter
 Mann, William H.
 Manning, John
 Marshall, John F.
 Martin, Wilbert G.
 Molosky, Joseph
 Paff, Harry L.
 Parenti, Anthony J.
 Person, Robert S.
 Peterson, J. L.
 Pelleria, Armanda D.
 Powers, Anna Marie
 Puri, Frank J.
 Reilly, Wilbert T.
 Rodgers, William G.
 Reeder, Robert C. Jr.,
 Romond, Russell G.
 Ruggieri, Nicholas A.
 Sanguiliano, John P.
 Schmidt, Karl F.
 Scholtes, Alphonse J.
 Short, Catherine C.
 Smith, John H.
 Smith, Lawrence R.
 Sockwell, Wayne C.
 Sparkes, Elliot W.
 Sprague, Norman T.
 Surhoff, Audrey H.
 Talbot, Edgar T.
 Thompson, Arthur E.
 Thompson, Matthew E.
 Walker, William H.
 Willis, John
 ** Wittack, Robert T.
 Wood, Charles A.
 Zampella, Daniel
 ** Zampella, Louis
 *****
 * Missing in Action
 ** Discharged

TOTAL NAMES ON ROLL - 736

Pvt. Monroe Davis has just finished a course in heavy gunnery at McDill Field, Fla., and is preparing to leave for Avon Park for further training. He sent us a poem dedicated to "Mother".

*****

Also adding to our library of poems is Pfc. Howard F. Wynn, now in Belgium after having been in England, France and Germany. He had a wonderful time in Paris.

*****

William D. Smith, F 1/C (MM), after nearly two years service at the Naval Air Station at Houma, La., expects to leave soon for parts unknown.

*****

Al. Caprarola, overseas 26 months, is now in Italy hoping for rotation so he can rush into the Park Lunch, his "old snack-joint", for a piece of pie.

*****

Sgt. Chester D. Rumsey is with the M P Det. H. Q. IX AirDefense Command, A.P.O. 63B, c/o PM, New York. He entered the service in July, 1943 and trained at Miami Beach, Fla. and Camp Barkley, Texas, before going overseas in March, 1944. His wife Mrs. Ruth Rumsey lives at 417 Forest Road. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Rumsey of 441 Park Avenue. Chester was active in local affairs in his pre-Army days.

*****