

ANTOINETTE SANGUILIANO

"Toni"

Culmen, Girls' A. A., Fanscotian

"Toni" was an ambitious typist as she faithfully served the Fanscotian and the Culmen. Her long neat curls insure her success in her chosen field of beautetics.

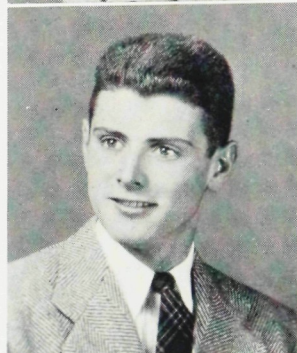

JOHN SANGUILIANO

"Sange"

Football, Vice Pres. General Assembly, Senior and Junior Plays

"Sange," the ideal of every girl, is tall, handsome and has an infectious grin. John will always be remembered for his splendid performances in both class plays, and for his personality plus. Johnny's plans for the future are indefinite but he plans to work immediately after graduation.

LORRAINE SARACE

"Rae"

Culmen, Hi-Tri, Prompter for Senior Play

Vivacious "Rae" has a sparkling smile. She's slightly daffy about banana shortcake and Artie Shaw's "Dancing in the Dark." It is her ambition to become an interpreter at Spanish-American conferences, meeting famous diplomats and great international figures.

RUTH SAUNDERS

"Sandy"

Student Council, Culmen Staff, Twirler, President of Hi-Tri, Prompter for Senior Play

That right combination of blonde hair, blue eyes, is popular Sandy. Don't let her size fool you because when it comes to deviltry, you'll find an extra big dose in her. She hopes to attend a school for nursing.
