

BETTY JANE HILL

Editor-in-chief of Culmen, Band, Orchestra, Vice-President of Library Council, Student Council, Girls A.A., Girls Chorus, Phi Sigma, Service Club.

One of our most able seniors, Betty has accomplished her work with unsurpassable initiative and fervor. Possesses intelligence and a real love for music. Betty's sparkling eyes and sweet face give forth an amiable expression, and she has an envious knack for making friends quickly. Betty hopes to attend N. J. C.

JOAN FRANCES HONOLD

Library Council, Girls A.A., Culmen.

"Joan" is one of our attractive brunettes. Known for her welcoming smile and genial attitude. Possesses some magical charm that attracts both sexes. Introducer of well known quips around the halls of SPHS. Always in step with fashion editors. Argyle socks? Cinch! Will seek work as a psychiatrist after graduation.

BETTY ANN HUBBELL

Library Council, Art Club, Service Club, Orchestra, Girls A.A., Assistant Editor of Culmen, Phi Sigma, Mixed Chorus, Girls Chorus, Assistant Director of Senior Play.

Wanted: Someone dependable—and Betty's right ready! Her strong alto voice has added much to our choruses. Clever Betty! Famous for naming bits of jewelry. We'll never forget her sparkling sense of humor, and the giggle that goes with it. Our intelligent assistant editor plans to attend College and, later, to prepare for Christian service.

BETTY J. HUYLER

Girls A.A., Commercial Club, Service Club, Typing Editor of Culmen, Secretary of General Association, Student Council.

Dark, and attractive "Bet" is one of our best dressed seniors. Always knitting those neat sweaters or socks. Wonder who for? Secretary of the Student Council and Girl's A. A., she has proven herself a capable and dependable student. Interested in secretarial work, Bet hopes to secure a job as secretary in the near future.
