

SENIORS

BRUCE ALLEN BAYER

Moonglowers; Band; Orchestra; Golf; Spanish Club; Junior Play.

A sweet saxophone and clear-toned clarinet are played by snazzy Bruce, a bebop enthusiast. He is also devotee of dancing, most sports, and pretty girls, where his good looks come in handy. He would like to attend some college, but he wonders if he'll get much work done in co-ed college. After college? Bruce doesn't know either.

BARBARA ALICE BLACK

Chorus; Commercial Club; Mixed Chorus; Las Contadores; Girls' A. A.

"Boots" is a recent acquisition—she came to us at the beginning of her senior year—and we feel lucky! North Arlington lost a cutie in blonde, curvey Barb. The pretty gal loves dancing and collecting lapel pins. When she graduates she would like to work in a chemical laboratory or perhaps as a chemist's secretary.

ROBERT CHARLES BLYTH

Junior Play; Spanish Club.

Bob, owner of that sleek thirty-eight Plymouth, is another member of this senior class whom most people remember for his remarks in class. For passing time Bob likes to play tennis, wobble down hill on skis, swim, and play basketball. He hopes to go to Rutgers in Newark to learn to be a pharmacist. Beware of those concoctions mixed by that innocent druggist.

RUTH ANN BOLLMAN

Twirler; Service Club; Girls A. A.; Girls Chorus; Mixed Chorus; Las Contadoras; Candy Committee Chairman; Junior Play.

Dependable Ruthie, who has a smile for everybody, enjoys happy people and good food. Much of her time is spent working on the candy committee and twirling her shiny baton. Another of her favorite pastimes is listening to music and singing. Ruth likes children and would like to attend Trenton State Teachers' to prepare for teaching.
