

FOREWORD

May this yearbook stand as our tribute to Scotch Plains High School, its faculty and students for giving us some of the most wonderful years of our lives. We sincerely hope that we have established some worthwhile standards that those following in our footsteps will deem worth maintaining. And now as we each prepare to go our separate ways, may God guide and keep us all, always.