

Richard Ralph Russell

Student Council; Pres., Senior Class; V.Pres., Junior Class; Culmen; Service Club; Football; Basketball; Baseball.

"Dick," president of the Senior Class, is naturally one of the most popular boys in our group. Though he claims he likes to sleep and hates to get up in the morning, we notice that he is usually in classes on time. "Dick" is modest and quiet but he has not been able to conceal his abilities from us. "Dick" will be a fine addition to the University of Maryland next year.

Annetta Marion Santo Salvo

Dark, attractive "Netta" is one of our soft-spoken, unassuming seniors. She enjoys reading and often one comes upon her with a look on her face as though she were pleased with some soft, ideal scene. But at the same time, "Netta" is cognizant of what is going on about her and will do well with whatever work she chooses after graduation. "Netta's" future plans are indefinite.

Diane Eunice Schaefer

Editor-in-chief, Culmen; Sr. National Honor Society; Sec., Freshman Class; Library Council; Service Club; Jr. Play; Make-up Committee; Cheerleaders.

Reading, driving, dancing, eating, and strumming the uke are some of the many things enjoyed by Diane. Blonde and pretty, she is one of those rare people who have very few dislikes. None of us will ever forget the great job she did in our Jr. Play. Diane hopes to become an airline hostess after attending Gettysburg College. We sure wish her the best of everything.

Mildred Schiattarella

Jr. National Honor Society; Fancotian; Library Council; Service Club; G.A.A.; Commercial Club.

"Millie," with her pretty black hair, is wild about Italian food, whether it be pizza or spaghetti. She enjoys dancing and roller skating and finds that much of her time is spent in those popular activities of eating and sleeping. About the only dislike "Millie" could think of is gym and this she is just about able to tolerate. After graduation she plans to attend Beautician School. Best of luck, "Millie!"
