

LAS CONTADORAS

A small group of outstanding girls are chosen from the chorus to make Las Contadoras. These girls practice on their own time and are much in demand in our community. Since they are a small group, they can handle difficult music and have done a fine job in representing our school.

This year they sang for many outside organizations and also the Christmas program.

Advisor -- Ruth Swetland

A Pleasure to Hear

