

WAYNE A. HANSEN

Pres., Science Club; Projection Squad.

Wayne is known for his timely remarks always presented with a straight face. He dislikes center around red heads but in the Navy he won't have to tolerate them. Anyone need help on chemistry? Ask Wayne, he'll straighten you out while he mixes you up. His life's work, will not be science but hotels.

SOPHIE MAXINE HARRIS

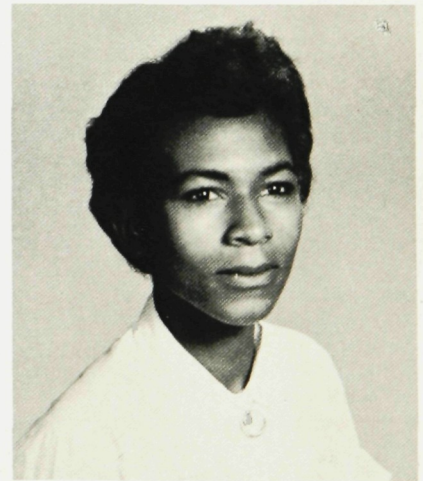

Jr. Chorus; Art Club; Red Cross; G.A.A.

A big smile and a little giggle have been Sophie's trademark through the years. A hard worker, she is always willing and able to lend a helping hand. Sophie like clothes (which are of good taste) and travel and would like to attend a beautician's school after graduation.

ELIZABETH HENDERSON

Girls A. A.

Liz likes fried chicken and fashionable clothes and loves to travel, especially in a "52" Chevy. She doesn't care for conceited people but there may not be to many of those at the Belle Meade School where Liz intends to pursue a modeling career after graduation.

CAROL FRANCES HILL

Culmen; Band; Orchestra; Student Council; Jr. Play; American Legion Oratorical; Library Council.

Another hard worker, Carol can give anyone a cheerful earful and has ranked high in the class of '54. Carol gets a bang out of New England summers and hopes to carve for herself a career in veterinary medicine. Her favorite, black coffee, should keep her going at the University of Pennsylvania.
